Et Eum fidius serviant, Eum gravius cognoscant, Eum ardentius deligant . . . That they may serve Him more closely, know Him more deeply, and love Him more intensely.

Pope John XXIII

The ultimate objective of education, the development of the "whole man" is further enhanced by that of a Catholic education, and is, thereby, determined by the final end of the pupil, i.e., the purpose for which he was created.

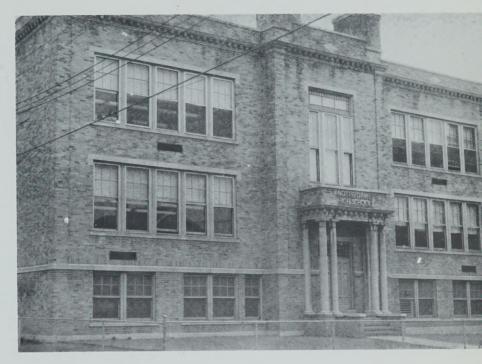

To Jesus through Mary

MARY IS MY MOTHER . . .

I must go to her for HELP, for COURAGE, for GUIDANCE, for all GRACE. She will lead me to the right choice. She will help me give glory to God. She will show me how to find happiness . . .

REV. ROBERT MAILLOUX, S.M. Pastor

TRATION

We are proud to welcome

REVEREND ROBERT J. MAILLOUX, S.M.

as shepherd of our souls this year, for we had benefited greatly from his kindness, understanding and patience in the past.

Through his scholarship and fatherliness, which are the means he uses to communicate his priestly virtues and love of God to those confided to his care, we know that Notre Dame will soar to greater heights.

It is with sincere and humble gratitude that we pause on the eve of our graduation to thank Father Mailloux, and to ask his blessing on the life that lies ahead.

TO KNOW MARY AND TO MAKE HER LOVED

We acknowledge the presence of one, who, in an unassuming and gentle way, has become for us a source of inspiration—a symbol of all that is noble and true.

Notre Dame is proud to have in her midst

REV. MARCEL LAJOIE, S.M.

whom she looks to as a priest of God, a counsellor of youth, and a friend to all. We look forward to seeing our name on the roster of CHI RHO members of whom Father is the Moderator so that we may continue to draw from his abundant generosity and ingenious "savoir faire."

Already we have come to experience an unparalleled devotion to the cause of youth in the person of our new Athletic Director and C. Y. O. Moderator,

REV. DONALD S. GAGNE, S.M.

It is with deep appreciation that we acknowledge his untiring efforts in behalf of each and every one of us and trust that we may grow both spiritually and socially as wholesome young adults through his admonitions and timely counsels.

In REV. WILFRID J. COTE, S. M. we have found one whose sincerity and undaunted zeal for souls is the hallmark of a life dedicated in bringing one and all to the Marian ideals to which he is unceasingly devoted.

May his work among us be fruitful and rewarding and may we profit be his example.

In the true spirit of Notre Dame, these seniors make it a "must" to pause and say a cheerful "Good morning" to Fr. Cote while on their way to school.

Both Raymond Leger and his cousin, Aline Leger, find it a rewarding experience to chat with this man of God.

The time is rapidly approaching when we will leave these halls of Notre Dame and assume our places in the adult world. Before we do, however, we want to give a fond thank-you to our teachers, who have tried so tirelessly during the past four years to instill in us some measure of knowledge.

In addition to the temporal learning much needed for a secondary school education, the Sisters have imparted clear concepts regarding our responsibilities to God and fellow men in this atomic age. Their selfless example made us realize that in order to attain commensurate success even in this life, we must, while striving for our own sanctification and material advancement, continually service others.

So, we gratefully and tenderly dedicate this volume of the STELLA MARIS to our FACULTY at NOTRE DAME.

Mother Claire Gertrude, S.U.S.C. Superior

Pledged to the Christian formation of youth, the faculty of Notre Dame High School views the fact that each growing individual must be spiritually, mentally, and physically equipped to keep apace with ever-pressing demands made upon them. In order to assist each student in reaching these goals, N.D. High gears its courses to these ends on a small scale.

Besides the daily religious instructions offered the students by the Sisters, the Marist Fathers complement this pleasant chore by guided teaching and counseling, including a three day retreat for all students.

English, a natural outlet for expression, and its counterpart, the masters in literary fame, is a daily experience.

The languages, Latin and French, are a continued part of the curriculum. Extensive use of the ALM French is a must for all students.

Always looking to the future, N. D. High keeps its scientific program forging ahead. The student is familiarized with modern methods inbiology and chemistry. PSSC Physics is taught in the senior year. UISCM Math approach has recently been adopted.

For those students who wish to pursue other than the above-mentioned fields of endeavor, business courses are offered.

deeper meaning to life and a clearer understanding of its value.

Sister Celine Helena, senior homeroom teacher, begins the day by expounding the truths of our faith and dwelling on the fact that the message of the New Testament, salvation-history, is just as applicable today as it was at the time of Christ; that our outlook towards a good Christian life must be a positive one, one of action!

With Sister preparing an outline for the next topic for discussion are Mary Deveney, Helen Callahan, and David Gilreath.

A PRAYER! A WISH! A DECISION!

Ann Marie Martin discusses future plans with Janet Boucher and Marianne O'Neill.

Bob Frechette and Alice Desrosiers are preparing their weekly summary of the goingson of the third session of Vatican Council II.

When not engrossed in English Literature, poetry, or the mechanics of our written language, the Seniors are graciously led to express their thoughts in essays, term papers, and such. Laurene Lawrence's witticism and individualism brings Sister Gabrielle Maria to the position of probing to seek the inference meant on this writing sample. Enjoying this task equally well are Norma Callahan, Celine Blais, Christopher Mullane, and Marie Wagner.

THERE'S AN ANSWER SOMEWHERE

Ann Broussard and Marianne O'Neill seem to be faced with a mathematical dilemma. Sister Rita Theresa tends to clarify the problem by delving into a few theories on the operation of the slide rule. Robert Frechette, our math whiz, profits by this situation as does Janet Boucher.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN!

With all extra-curricular activities clamoring for support, class study periods can prove most profitable. Sister Therese Alfred claims that "Wise use of this time can lighten the burden of books." We agree wholeheartedly!

enrichment through foreign language and culture.

Explaining a French exercise to Almyra LaBerge is an easy task for Sister Pauline Louise. Maureen Pessotti and Marie Morneault find the use of the French tapes an invaluable aid in mastering the correct pronunciation.

ALL THAT FOR JUST ONE WORD!

As John Keating has found, N.D.'s reference section of the library elaborates extensively on even the most simple topics.

THE GOLDWATER QUESTION AGAIN?

The '64 election was the heated topic of many a current events discussion. It would seem that Carol Lovely, Paul Starek and Barbara Melanson were attempting to predict its outcome. Why not? History does not seem as remote and irrelevant when studied in connection with daily occurrences.

SCIENCES..

enthusiastic disclosure

Physics is a challenging study to any student; however, with the wealth of information provided by Commander Richard D. King, the physical sciences and their inter-related fields have taken on new meaning for the seniors as attested by David Gilreath and Anne Nowlan who reflect the genuine attitude of the class.

A GLIMPSE INTO NEW WORLDS

Engrossed in their explorations of our microscopic world are Jean Boulanger and Ann Marie Martin. Simultaneously Donald Gilreath is explaining one phase in the myotic reproductive cycle to Celine Blais.

Sister Rose Joan explains the forces which determine the particular geometric configuration of the compounds to Paul Starek and Dianne Beauchemin.

After printing so many, Maureen Pessotti discovers that Anne Marie Robichaudused the wrong stencil!

Alice Desrosiers is speeding too rapidly for poor Marie Morneault to catch every number on the first try.

NO, SHE'S NOT PRAYING!

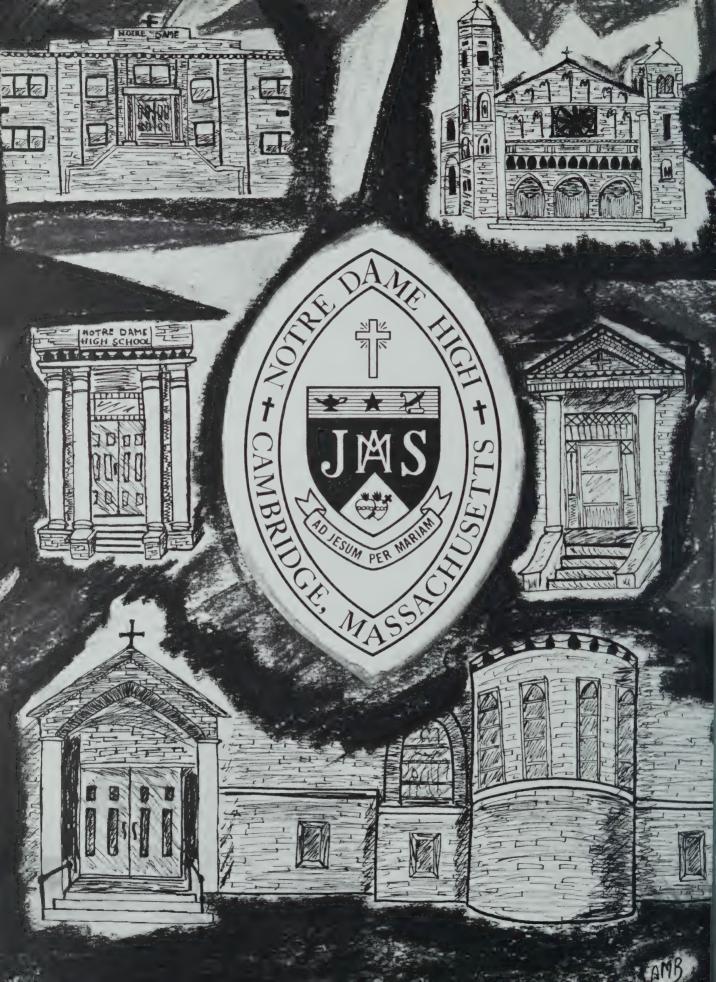

REALLY! Aline Leger, Mary Deveney, and Helen Callahan are looking for supplies for their typing class.

Desiring to help unfold budding interests and to promote a spirit of social consciousness, N. D. H. sponsors a selected number of extra-curricular activities. All its students become more fully aware of God's tremendous personal regard for each and every one by a retreat of three days. Literary talents were nurtured in writing and re-writing for both the Stella Maris and the Vesuvius, which, in turn, brought deep satisfaction upon their completion. The members of the PROBERS club found enrichment and enlightenment in exploring the wonders of the universe. The fostering of leadership and of intercommunication was demonstrated by council members who seriously fulfilled their various responsibilities. They worked steadily to improve student relations with the faculty and with one another, and to provide enjoyable social evenings with alumni.

SPIRITUAL

Under Our Lady's Banner

Under the protection of Mary, to whom he is consecrated upon his entrance at Notre Dame, the student is given opportunity to know, appreciate, and live his Catholic faith.

The means at his disposal are part of the Christocentric atmosphere pervading the school and include religion classes, retreats, conferences, opportunity for Mass, Confession and reception of Holy Communion, daily recitation of the Rosary and individual guidance.

Kevin O'Grady realizes that reflection, meditation, and prayer are the keystones to a successful Christian life.

Blessing
and Reception of Class Rings

Father Mailloux performs one of the most impressive ceremonies of the senior year--the Blessing of Class Rings.

In the words of our dear pastor, Fr. Mailloux...

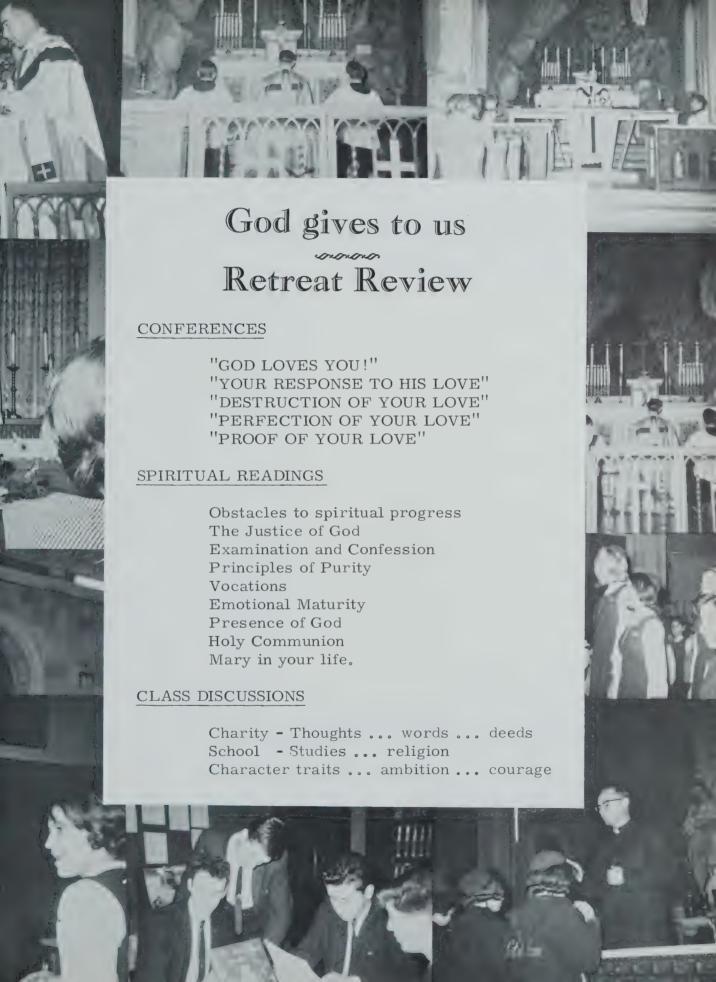

"Your class ring is not only an ornament but a symbol of the close union that should exist between every true and loyal student of Notre Dame High School.

Let it be a reminder of the happy days and memorable years spent under the banner of Our Lady."

Mixed feelings of joy and sadness filled the hearts of the seniors as they expressed themselves after the ceremony.

Notre Dame Chapter

National Honor Society

Induction

President-elect Jean Messier receives her robe from the chapter's sponsor, Sister Gabrielle Maria, while Dennis Roux presents himself for investiture to Sister Rita Theresa.

Active members reinstated for the second year were Dianne Beauchemin, Jeannette Broussard, Helen Callahan, and Ann Marie Martin.

Vice-president Linda Wamboldt leads the newly elected members to the principal for induction.

IN A RELATIVE WAY

There once was a lady called Bright, Who could travel faster than light, She went out one day, In a relative way, And came back the previous night.

Probers

This is a summation of the particularly perplexing pet project of the senior probers.

Brother Kenneth J. Molchen, S.M. shed some light on their problems by stimulating discussions.

WEATHER OR NOT

As one of their projects, the junior probers are viewing a movie on weather. They agree with Mark Twain that many people talk about the weather, but few do anything about it.

TIONAL

ORGANIZATION FOR THE ORGANIZED!

C.Y.O.

"Let's get organized!" A quip often heard on campus! However, one must admit that, under Fr. Gagne's direction, our great organizer, Donald Gilreath (C.Y.O. President), has no other alternative; and especially when ordered about by Alice Desrosiers, Marcia Mahoney, Maureen Pessotti, and Marie Morneault, his able subordinates!

Student Council

WHAT'S YOUR PROBLEM?

Is your honor card seeing circles? Can't find the salt in the cafeteria? Who wants to landscape the campus? Are the nuns getting you down? Just look for Marianne O'Neill; she is always ready with a sympathetic ear to lend to everyone's troubles. Her female intuition has been a valuable asset to her as our first female Student Council President.

Homecoming

Festivities . . .

"... in days of yore"

Eddie Ford hoops it up for the Alumni!

"And so it began -- at peace and as friends (?)."

ANCHORS AWAY with

ALUMNI CHEERLEADERS!

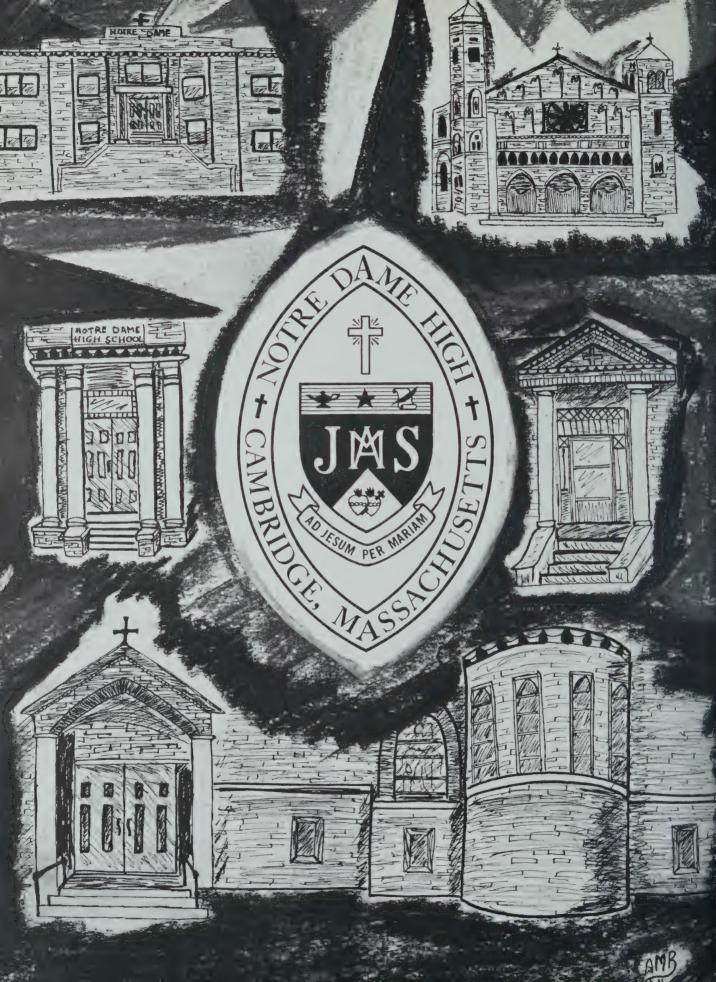

Despite old age and rusty joints, they still managed to cheer their team on to victory.

UNDIVIDED ATTENTION

The Gilreath twins play a grand twosome and hoop it up for the Cavaliers!

BASKETBALL BALLET

Eddie Kelley shows the grace and ease of a perfect pirouette even as he concentrates on hooking two more points.

BOB SOLEY Guard

Dave Gilreath has caused many a team to wince in agony when he executes that famous jump shot.

MAKE IT COUNT!

REACHING FOR VICTORY!

Withstanding the pressure of three men, Dick Viglione shows the stamina that makes him a hot prospect for next year.

SNUFF THEM OUT, RONNIE!

Determination knows no bounds, even with such formidable opposition, as our J.V. players have proven.

Chuck Boyle and Kevin Looney forcefully drive home a point, proving again that half the battle of basketball is fought in the huddle.

Before you accept that first job ...

Look over your employer as carefully as he does

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon... before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
